
THE CHRONICLE

1952 - 1989

The following pages are an abbreviated record of the accomplishments of Rabbi Doctor David I. Indich since assuming his position as spiritual leader of our congregation.

It features interviews, activities, and accomplishments in the life of the congregation and the community.

In as much as no book can contain a full record of the 38 year relationship of the Rabbi with the congregation and the community, the following represent just a few of the highlights of that time period.
