

1952-1989 RABBI INDICH SERVED NOT ONLY HIS CONGREGATION AND THEIR NEEDS BUT WAS INVOLVED IN EVERY FACET OF COMMUNAL ENDEAVOR

RELIGIOUS AWARDS IN BOY SCOUTING GIVEN

From left to right: Dan Bluestein, chairman Ner Tamid Committee, Jewish Committee on Scouting; Buddy Gallop, Golf Manor Civic Club Troop No. 604; Jack Abrams, member Ner Tamid Committee, Jewish Committee on Scouting; Robert Newmark, Golf Manor Civic Club Troop No. 604; Rabbi David Indich, Golf Manor Synagogue, member Jewish Committee on Scouting; Howard Mitzman, Jewish Center Troop No. 265; Win Stubbs, director of Community Relations, Dan Beard Council; Robert Kaplan, chairman, Jewish Committee on Scouting; Bruce Cole, instructor, Ner Tamid Class, Jewish Committee on Scouting.

THE AMERICAN ISRAELITE

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1979

Golf Manor Synagogue Welcomes Russians

Members of the Russian community honored at Golf Manor Synagogue.

(Photo by Ben Rosen)

Golf Manor Synagogue held a special Pre-Slichos social welcoming and honoring new emigres from Russia.

Rabbi David Indich explained the significance of the High Holiday season and Mrs. Jeffrey (Susan) Zipkin translated his remarks into Russian. Mr. Joshua Minkove demonstrated the use of the Shofar. Mr. Ron Richards spoke on "Peace - What Next." The gist of his talk was given in Russian by Mrs. Zipkin.

Refreshments were served and the assemblage entered the Sanctuary where the Slichos services were conducted by Rabbi Indich and chanted by Rabbi Uvstizky. In addition to the congregants, approximately 75 Russian guests were in attendance.