

Thus were the Heavens and the Earth completed and filled with life.

All that G-d had made was very good.

On the seventh day, He rested and blessed this day: this was the first Shabbat in history.