Now comes the plaintiff, Edward Sherman, and for cause of action against the defendant, Elezior Silver, avers and says that said defendant, together with his agents, did, on or about the 10th day of January, 1941, falsely, maliciously and without probable cause, present to the Prosecuting Attorney of Hamilton County, Ohio, a complaint, charging said plaintiff, together with his wife, Anna Sherman, with an assault with intent to kill said defendant.

Plaintiff further says that because of and owing to said false charge, as aforesaid, said defendant, together with his agents, did falsely and maliciously and without probable cause, procure the indictment of said plaintiff on a charge of Assault with Intent to kill said defendant; that said indictment, as aforesaid, was returned by the Hamilton County Grand Jury in their report of January 17th, 1941, and was spread on the criminal records of Hamilton County, Ohio, as Indictment No. 48230.

Plaintiff further says that on the 17th day of January, 1941 as a result of said indictment, as aforesaid, he was arrested by a Deputy of the Hamilton County Sheriff, was taken in custody by said Deputy, transported to the Hamilton County Court House, Criminal Division, where, in order to gain his liberty and release while awaiting trial on the criminal charge set forth in said indictment, was compelled to furnish bond in the sum of $1,000.00.

Plaintiff further says that on the 18th day of January 1941, he was arraigned in open Criminal Court on said charge and entered a plea of not guilty.

Plaintiff further says that on the day set for a trial of said charge, to-wit February 14th, 1941, said defendant did falsely, maliciously and without reasonable or probable cause, prosecute and cause to be prosecuted said charge of Assault with Intent to Kill said defendant, against this plaintiff in the Criminal Division of the Common Pleas Court of Hamilton County, Ohio, whereupon, on February 17th, 1941, following a trial of two days, the jury, in said case duly sworn, then and there rendered a verdict of not guilty, thereby discharging said plaintiff of and from the criminal charge, in said indictment contained, and completely ending and determining said criminal proceedings.

Plaintiff further says that at the time said defendant, together with his agents, procured said indictment against said plaintiff, as aforesaid, said charge and arrest of plaintiff was made public and was given wide publicity in the local and foreign newspapers.

Plaintiff further says that by reason of said arrest and indictment, procured falsely, maliciously and without probable or reasonable cause, by said defendant, together with his agents, as aforesaid, he has been injured in his reputation and his business and his standing in society; that by such false, malicious and unreasonable prosecution of this plaintiff by said defendant, together with his agents, he has been greatly humiliated and ridiculed; that his reputation in the community has been damaged and that he has been because thereof subjected to great humiliation and mental pain and suffering; that his nervous system has been shocked; that he has spent sleepless nights, worrying and grieving over his public disgrace caused by the said acts of said defendant together with his agents, and that because thereof he has been damaged in the sum of $50,000.00.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays judgment against the defendant in the sum of $50,000.00, together with his costs herein expended and for all other relief that is just and proper.

MAY 12 1941
ELMER F. HUNSMCKER
CLERK OF COURTS

Now comes the defendant and for answer to the petition of the plaintiff admits that an indictment charging plaintiff with assault with intent to kill was returned by the Hamilton County Grand Jury in its report of January 17, 1941, and was spread upon the criminal records of Hamilton County, Ohio, as Indictment No. 48230, and that on the 18th day of January, 1941, he was arraigned in open criminal court on said charge and entered a plea of not guilty. Defendant further admits that on February 17, 1941, following a trial of two days in the criminal division of the Common Pleas Court of Hamilton County, Ohio, the jury in said case duly sworn, then and there rendered a verdict of not guilty.

Further answering, defendant denies each and every other allegation in plaintiff's petition contained, not herein specifically admitted or denied.

WHEREFORE, having fully answered, defendant prays that plaintiff's petition may be dismissed, and for his costs herein expended.
