

About the Newspaper

This first issue of this year's Hillel paper is not complete by any means -- it is serving only as a partial introduction to the activities of Hillel. In future issues, we plan to feature articles of interest to everyone, articles that are varied and entertaining as well as informative. In order to put out a good paper, we need a good staff of writers that is willing to submit such material. Any one interested in working on the newspaper staff should sign up for the newspaper committee or contact the chairman of this committee. If you have material that you wish to appear in the paper, but cannot serve as a regular member of the staff, you can send in individual articles to the chairman of the newspaper committee, and they will be used, if appropriate, for the following issue.

What is a suitable name for the Hillel Newspaper? Do you have any suggestions? Hillel is sponsoring a contest to find a clever and original name for UC's Hillel paper. The winner of this "Name the Paper" contest will receive a free year membership to Hillel. Please submit all entries to Phyllis Ritter, 7405 Fair Oaks Drive, Cincinnati 37, Ohio, or Phyllis Ritter, c/o Hillel House, 320 Straight Street, Cincinnati 20, Ohio, by the end of September -- or sooner, if possible.

A post office clerk asked a woman who was mailing a Bible if there was anything breakable in her package.
"Only the Ten Commandments," was the answer.
