

Dr. Myron Moskowitz, President

Dear Friends:

It is my pleasure to extend warm greetings to all, and heartfelt congratulations to our graduates, on behalf of the Board of Trustees. Our best wishes for success in all their future endeavors go with them. They are embarking now upon a new and golden phase of life's endeavors.

Those of us remaining with the School feel that we too are embarking on a new phase of our efforts. We hope and believe that broad vistas in the field of education are opening before us. Our Board of Education, working hand-in-hand with our principal and our consultant in secular studies, Dr. Clifford Ramig, are currently in the process of exploring a broad new scope in programming, curriculum planning, and program implementation. There is room for all of us in this undertaking—parents, teachers, rabbis, and dedicated laymen. Won't you join us?

"It is not for Thee to complete the work, but neither art Thou free to desist from it."

Sincerely yours,

MYRON MOSKOWITZ, M.D.
