THE HIGH HOLY DAYS IN NHA TRANG

sound of the Shofar. The Yom Kippur service, with its traditional prayers of repentance had new meaning to those faced with the daily task of survival.

The Yom Kippur service concluded with the sound of the Shofar blown by PFC Samuel Waidenbaum, a Boston Rabbinical Seminary graduate, who also blew the Shofar on Rosh Hashanah.

Following the service, a break-the-fast dinner was held in the nearby Nha Trang EM Mess. To everyones suprise and delight Rabbi Lapp revealed that a large quantity of lox had been received from the United States and would be served at the break-the-fast. The lox was sent with the compliments of MSgt Theodore Weiss of Qui Nhon, whose family sent the shipment from California.

And so the High Holy Days ended quite successfully, and the men returned to their respective units looking forward to their next trip to Nha Trang for Passover.
